NARRATIVE:

Sharron Campbell has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. Her convictions include grand theft property, possession of narcotic controlled substances, prostitution, robbery, violation of parole, petty theft with prior conviction, and assault with great bodily injury likely. She has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 7 year term for robbery. Campbell was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 7, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Campbell qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for assault with great bodily injury likely is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
